Parent Support Network
Who can lend a helping hand?
Think about people in your support network. Each hand represents a different group of people. Write in each hand specific people from that network who can help provide support to you and your baby! You can draw or paste a picture of your family in the “My Support Network” circle!